

July 2010 – OptimumFX welcomes Ray Oldam to the team:

Ray's early career was in Export Logistics, working in the electrical and pharmaceutical industries. Joining drinks company Bacardi-Martini Limited in 1991, Ray worked in different management and internal consultancy roles, covering Production, Purchasing, and IT projects. His wide experience made him a natural choice for the company's Continuous Improvement team, formed in 2000, and Ray played a leading part in the company's Lean programme, including work at other group sites in Europe.

Leaving Bacardi-Martini in 2008, Ray worked in training and consultancy, and has developed and delivered training and improvement projects at plants in both the UK and Europe, in a variety of different industries.

Ray is a Graduate Member of the Institute of Export, and fluent French speaker. In addition to his other qualifications, Ray has recently achieved NVQ A1 Assessor award and the PTTLS qualification to deliver Adult Education courses.
